PETITION TO REVIVE ABANDONED PATENT UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b)

Petitioner respectfully petitions the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks to revive the above-mentioned patent under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(b) on the ground that the abandonment of the above-identified patent application was unintentional. This petition is supported by the statement of Colin P. Cahoon.

Applicant hereby petitions for revival of this application. Enclosed are the following:

1. Response to Office Action mailed March 23, 2009;
2. A statement that the delay in filing the required reply from the due date for this reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional.

It is submitted, therefore, that on the basis described above the abandonment should be held to be unintentional and the patent application revived.

If there are any outstanding issues that the Examiner feels may be resolved by way of a telephone conference, the Examiner is invited to contact Colin P. Cahoon or Celina M Diaz at (972) 367-2001.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge payment of the Petition Fee of $1,620.00 and any further fees associated with any of the foregoing papers submitted herewith, or to credit any overpayment thereof, to Deposit Account No. 50-0392.

STATEMENT OF COLIN P. CAHOON

In accordance with the provisions of 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b), the undersigned hereby makes the following written statement:

1. My name is Colin P. Cahoon. I am over the age of twenty-one and fully competent to make the following statement and have firsthand knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I am an attorney of record for the above-identified application and make the following statement in support of the Petition to Revive the above-identified application.
3. The failure to file a response and accompanying amendment on or before the due date of September 23, 2009 after non-final rejection was unintentional. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for this reply until the filing of the accompanying Petition to Revive was unintentional.
4. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made herein on information and belief are believed to be true. Further, I made these statements with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any registration issuing thereon.
